

A former primary school teacher, Paul Delaney is now a children's performance poet and author, visiting both primary and secondary schools in the UK and abroad.

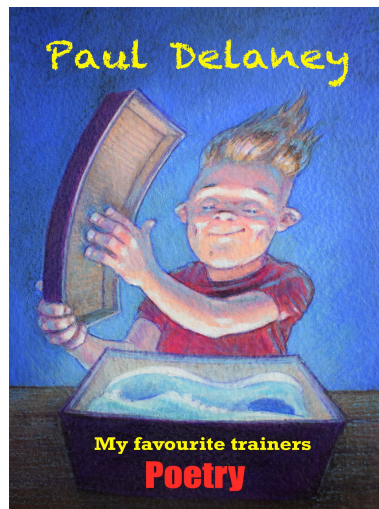

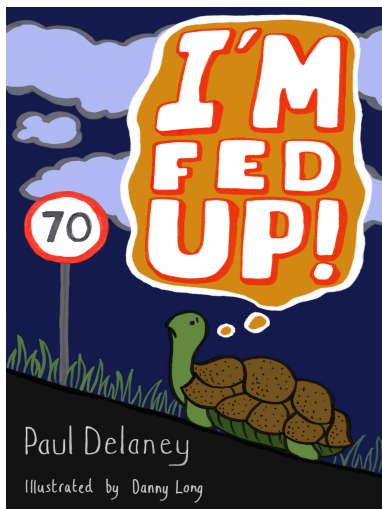

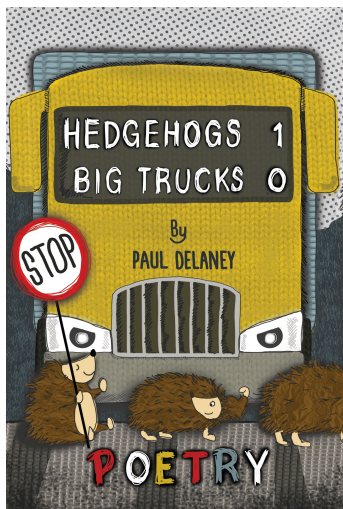

Recent travels have included countless schools in London, British International Schools in Rome and Budapest as well as tours of British Schools in Prague and Berlin. School 'Zoom' sessions have included working with Windsor School, Bahamas and The Waverley School, Pasadena, California, U.S.A.

'Paul created a real BUZZ around our school and all just with his poetry! His poetry assembly and workshops were fabulous!'
(British International School, Prague)

'Paul was funny, engaging and inspiring. His passion and excitement were contagious. The children wanted him to stay.'
(British International School, Budapest, Hungary)

Poetry

Email: paul@pauldelaneypoetry.co.uk

Stories

Life's an adventure, so let's get creating!

