

Watch out!

We're walking in a wet, wild, windy wood.
Our wellington boots all covered in mud!
A thick green forest, trees all around!
Danger! Danger! What's that sound?

Look around, what do you see?
Something seems to be following me!
What's that shadow hanging over there?
It could be a Gruffalo or a big, brown bear!

Watch out; watch out - Grass snake ahead!
Watch out; watch out - Spider in his bed!

Where?
Don't worry, they're gone now. Phew!

Watch out; watch out - Owl swooping low!
Watch out; watch out - Frog hopping by my toe!

Where?
Don't worry, they're gone now. Phew!

We're walking in a wet, wild windy wood...

Watch out; watch out - an army of ants!
Watch out; watch out, they're heading for my pants!

Where?
Don't worry, they're gone now. Phew!

Watch out; watch out, dirty water in a hole.
Watch out; watch out, rocks starting to roll.

Where?
Don't worry, they're gone now. Phew!

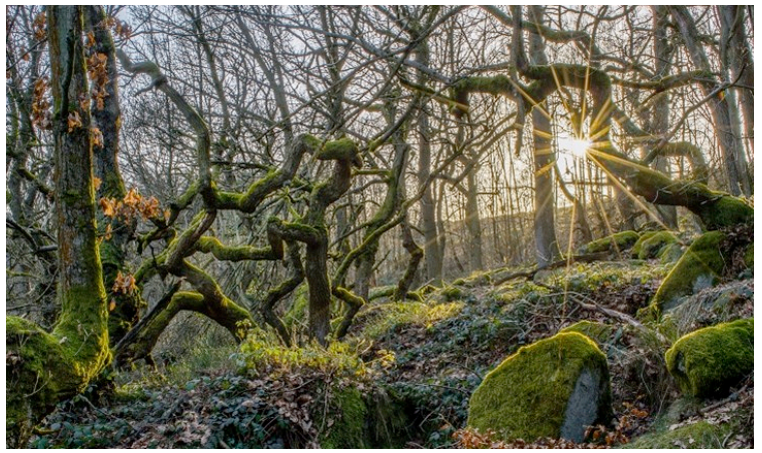

We're walking in a wet, wild windy wood...

Watch out; watch out, it's getting dark.
Watch out; watch out, I can hear a dog's bark.

Where?
Don't worry, they're gone now. Phew!

Watch out, watch out - shouting teachers!
Watch out; watch out, they're the worse kind of creatures!

We're walking in a wet, wild windy wood...

© Thursday 21st February 2019
For Longford Primary School, Gloucester
Paul Delaney
www.pauldelaneypoetry.co.uk